MANAGING MEMBER
CESCHINI CPAS

Michael Ceschini is the managing member of Ceschini CPAs, a certified public accounting and profitability consulting firm with offices in Miller Place and Manhattan.

Ceschini's areas of expertise include accounting, profitability consulting, fiscal management, financial statement preparation and tax as it pertains to business in various industries including construction contractors, real estate firms, distributors, wholesalers, retailers and companies in service industries. He also advises clients with respect to strategic business planning, tax minimization strategies, succession planning and mergers and acquisitions.

A recognized expert, Ceschini has frequently been called upon as a lecturer and business advisor for companies and industry trade organizations. He has also authored articles and has been sought for expert opinions by various publications, including LIBN, Construction Executive, Newsday, New York Construction Magazine and the New York Real Estate Journal. For instance, in a recent feature in Construction Executive, he shared executive insights on best practices for managing cash flow year-round. In an LIBN article, he shared pointers on how companies can optimize the sale price of their business. On several occasions, Newsday quoted him on ways that businesses could realize tax savings.

Ceschini is a member of various trade organizations, which helps him to gain a clear understanding of the problems and issues facing his clients in those industries.

A graduate of New Paltz College, Ceschini holds a Bachelor of Science in accounting. In addition to being a certified public accountant, he has earned the certified construction industry financial professional (CCIFP) designation, which is awarded by the Institute of Certified Construction Industry Financial Professionals. He has also earned the certified merger and acquisition advisor (CM&AA) designation, which is conferred by the Alliance of Merger & Acquisition Advisors.
